IS QUALITY

then no consideration? Even if "all coons look alike," certainly they are not all the same quality.

Can anything be more true than this concerning jewelry or silver goods? How many pieces made in the same pattern, from the common plated ware to the finest of gold, bear the same outward resemblance?

Can you tell them apart? Yet you do not wonder that there is some difference in the cost of making.

Is it not here where the guarantee and the reputation of the dealer is your safeguard?

This fall's productions embrace some striking examples in the better class of ornaments.

Magnificent brooches and pendants set with the different gems. The "Art Nouveau," so popular at the Paris Exposition. Highly artistic and individual. Not the kind turned out by the yard.

We have all the high-class gold and silver novelties to be found anywhere, and believe it possible to meet all requirements for goods in our various lines.

GOOD CHEER FOR THEM

Sick and Unfortunate To Be Remembered.

FEASTING AND PRESENTS

Inmates of Hospitals, Jail and the Poor Will Have Merry Christmas.

Today will be a day of plenty and good cheer, not only for those who may sit beneath their own vine and fig tree, happy in good health and freedom within the home circle, but also for the unfortunates whose Christmas must be spent inside the walls of the hospitals, asylums and prisons of the city.

At the Victoria Hospital for incurables there will be a gala day of feasting, singing, receiving of presents and entire freedom for the day from the restraints of the doctor's orders as to what and how much the invalids may eat.

The generous fund contributed towards the Christmas of the incurables has made it possible for Mrs. Willis to carry out her holiday arrangements.

There will be some nice little gift for each of the unfortunates, besides a bountiful Christmas dinner, consisting of turkey, plum pudding and all the proper accompaniments. At 11 o'clock the girls from the Kamehameha school will sing for the patients. Those who are not confined to their beds will assemble for the services that are to follow, and for those in the wards where the patients are unable to leave their beds the young ladies will go from room to room singing carols and anthems.

Shortly after the noon hour a Christmas dinner such as cannot be excelled by any in the land will be served and the doctor has given each patient permission to partake as he pleases, regardless of diet rules. It will be a day that will linger long in the minds of the lonely ones and the memory will help to brighten many an hour of pain and suffering.

At the Queen's Hospital there will be the regulation turkey dinner in the doctors' and nurses' dining room for those who prefer it, and in the dining room of the native patients there will be spread a plentiful repast, the menu containing all the toothsome dishes known to the joyous luau. Ferns and evergreens have been brought from Tantalus for decorations, and the day will be given to Christmas cheer and rejoicing.

The old folks at the Lunallilo Home will also be treated to an extra good dinner and there will be a Christmas remembrance for each in the way of candy, nuts, cakes and fruits.

At the Maternity Home the patients will have everything on the Christmas menu from turkey and cranberry sauce to plum pudding and squash pie. Candy, nuts, cakes and fruits will be freely distributed and the day given over to social festivities.

The inmates of the Insane Asylum will be provided with turkey and the regular holiday bill of fare. Their hearts will be further gladdened by free distribution of candy, fruits and tobacco. No services will be held on account of the different nationalities and the idiosyncrasies of the patients.

Deputy Sheriff Chillingworth reports a tempting luau menu for the inmates of the city prison, with poi, roast pig, fish, squid and other delicacies. There will be service from 10 a. m. to 11 a. m. by the Young Men's Christian Association, after which the prisoners will abandon themselves to the pleasures of the bounteous luau.

At the Oahu Jail there will also be services from 10 to 11 a. m. and at noon time a roast pig luau. Officer Henry has ordered a regulation native feast and the prisoners will be allowed a full share of Christmas cheer.

The Reformatory School will have in addition to their usual bill of fare extra delicacies in the way of choice roasts, fruits, candy, nuts, etc. Christmas services will be held in the morning.

Thirty-nine excellent Christmas dinners were supplied to the poor of the city by the Associated Charities of the city from funds donated by friends of the association. Mrs. Baeer also reports that toys, candy, nuts and fruit were provided for twenty-eight poor children through the management of the organization.

CHINESE MEETING.

Wong Leong Tells Just What Was Discussed at It.

Wong Leong, president of the Chinese Hospital Association, writes explaining the object of a meeting of the members of the Chinese Relief Society, and denies that it was to decide whether or not the balance of the relief fund is to be used to run an attorney to represent the Chinese-Americans at Washington.

"The topic discussed," says Wong Leong, "was the disposal of the balance of the funds of the Chinese Relief Society. The more radical members favor the transference of the balance of the fund to the Chinese Hospital to be invested with the condition that only the interest be used by the hospital, but the principal is to be kept untouched and ready for any emergency that may arise."

"This policy is favored and approved of by the contributors towards the relief fund: Claus Spreckels & Co., The First National Bank of Hawaii, Bishop & Co., Allen and Robinson, Inter-Island Steam Navigation Company, Maria Eua, James A. Hopper, Cecil Brown, Henry May & Co., Hollister Drug Company, W. W. Dimond & Co., H. Hackfeld & Co., M. S. Grinbaum & Co., Theo. H. Davies & Co., James F. Morgan, L. B. Kerr, Hyman Brothers, Wilder's Steamship Company, Hawaiian Hardware Company, F. A. Schaefer & Co., Lewis & Co., Benson, Smith & Co., W. C. Peacock & Co., M. W. McClesney & Sons, Pacific Hardware Company, P. C. Jones, Lewers &

Cooke, M. Phillips & Co., C. Brewer & Co., Henry Waterhouse & Co., W. R. Castle, Union Feed Company, F. W. Macfarlane, A. S. Hartwell, Castle & Cooke, Charles M. Cooke, Ltd., The Bank of Hawaii, Wm. G. Irwin & Co., Hoffschlager Co., Ltd., Alexander & Baldwin and W. C. Achi.

"The consul objects to this policy, but favored the maintenance of a nominal relief society, so that when money is required in China for relief purposes, he could remit it, for being consul he claims he has the right to do so, and by immortalizing the Chinese government, he could obtain promotion and honor—it is for this reason that the consul is so strenuously opposed to the transference of the money to the hospital."

"I further state that the naturalized Chinese have never contemplated to make use of the relief funds for their political uses."

ENGLISH HONORS FOR MAHAN.

Captain A. T. Mahan of the United States navy, the well known writer on naval subjects, has the honor of being the recipient of the first Chesney Memorial Medal of Great Britain. It is in consideration of the three great works of which he is the author—"The Influence of Sea Power on History," "The Influence of Sea Power Upon the French Revolution" and "The Life of Nelson"—that Captain Mahan has been deservedly selected for this high honor.

THE IMMORTAL THIRTY NAMED

Independent Announce Make-up of the Charter Commission.

After many delays and discussions of the merits and demerits of a host of citizens of Honolulu, the Independent yesterday noon came to an agreement as to the personnel of the charter commission which will frame a municipal charter from an independent standpoint for the city of Honolulu. The names of thirty men are upon the list, in which Democrats and Independents are sprinkled at random. The thirty have consented to act for the Independents. The first meeting of the commission will take place in Foster Hall tomorrow evening to effect its organization. The various committees necessary to effect a beginning will be chosen. Although a former Democrat, it is believed that Col. McCarthy will act as chairman.

Following is the list as definitely fixed upon yesterday:

R. N. Boyd, S. Meheula, J. K. Kaula, J. C. Quinn, W. H. Kallimani, J. K. Kaunamano, P. C. Rowe, J. M. Kealoha, A. Herbert, John Cassidy, C. C. Pitting, Prince D. Kawapanaoka, C. J. McCarthy, D. Crowningshield, Wm. Ringer, A. L. C. Atkinson, Edmund H. Hart, John H. Wilson, John H. Wise, J. D. Holt, D. P. R. Isenberr, E. J. Tasta, W. F. Irvine, Capt. J. Ross, J. M. Poenoe, L. H. Doe, D. M. Kuphea, C. W. Booth, Morris Keohokalo, J. N. Nakookoo.

President George Harris, of Amherst College, is one of the first college presidents to attempt, publicly, to solve the servant girl problem. At a recent meeting of women's clubs at Amherst, Mass., he read a paper on the subject.

SMOKER'S TABLE—A neat gift to a gentleman. This table consists of a moistened box for cigars, a cutter, two cellars, and an electric battery to light the cigars.
